

PostgreSQL

- Question-2 :

- 2.4.1) Find all the users.

Command :

```
SELECT * FROM users;
```

- 2.4.2) Find all the posts.

Command :

```
SELECT * FROM posts;
```

- 2.4.3) Find all posts which are authored by "GoodGuyGreg".

Command :

```
SELECT * FROM posts WHERE username = 'GoodGuyGreg';
```

- 2.4.4) Find all posts which are authored by "ScumbagSteve".

Command :

```
SELECT * FROM posts WHERE username = 'ScumbagSteve';
```

- 2.4.5) Find all the comments.

Command :

```
SELECT * FROM comments;
```

- 2.4.6) Find all comments which are authored by "GoodGuyGreg".

Command :

```
SELECT * FROM comments WHERE username = 'GoodGuyGreg';
```

- 2.4.7) Find all comments which are authored by "ScumbagSteve".

Command :

```
SELECT * FROM comments WHERE username = 'ScumbagSteve';
```

- 2.4.8) Find all comments belonging to the post "Reports a bug in your code".

Command :

```
SELECT * FROM comments, posts WHERE comments.post = posts.id AND posts.title = 'Reports a bug in your code';
```